Maneuvering in the millennium is not easy. We are more connected than ever, but somehow still disconnected.

Get up close & personal for an in-depth discussion as we open the conversation about how parents are getting it all done (or at least trying ;). Today's new normal comes with a price – like communication overload: DMing, snapping, Insta-gramming, and learning how to keep it together in this fast-paced gig-ecosystem.

Bring your business cards and get ready to mix & mingle because the night will close out with a fun power (1/2) hour of speed-networking! Be prepared to give your 60-second elevator-pitch with each new connection and share what you are passionate about!

AGENDA

5:30pm-6pm: Arrive, Meet & Greet

6pm-6:30pm: Panel Conversation & Q&A: "Keeping up with the Chaos"

6:30-7pm: Speed Networking: Building Real Life Connections

We'll pull back the curtain for a raw, impromptu conversation-starter with these fabulous TRM parents and friends who – like the rest of us – are master jugglers!

RSVP by Oct. 3 to: 561-745-1995

*Babysitting available on-site with an exciting No-FOMO enrichment night for kids (activity to be announced), while parents get to enjoy a night out connecting with other amazing adults (translation: vent sesh ;).
